

---

Mark E. Nadolny
Chief Financial Officer

As chief financial officer for Susan G. Komen for the Cure®, Mark E. Nadolny is responsible for all financial and administrative matters affecting the world's largest breast cancer organization. Since inception, Komen for the Cure has invested more than $2.0 billion, making it the world's largest source of private funds for breast cancer research and community programs involving awareness, education, screening, treatment and direct services for breast cancer.

Prior to joining Komen, Nadolny was a senior executive at Blockbuster, Inc. Throughout his tenure at Blockbuster, Nadolny held leadership roles in store operations, financial planning, worldwide finance, supply chain and merchandising. Prior to Blockbuster, he worked at Santa Fe International Corp. and Arthur Andersen & Company.

A long-time passionate supporter of the breast cancer cause, Nadolny served as the Blockbuster team captain for the Susan G. Komen Dallas Race for the Cure® for many years. Additionally, he was a board member and officer of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Collin County.

Nadolny earned his Bachelor of Science in accounting from Marquette University in Milwaukee and is a certified public accountant. He is married and has three sons. In his spare time, Nadolny enjoys running, reading and travel.