

---

Michael S. Williams
Senior Advisor, Washington, D.C.

Mike Williams is a well-regarded and highly respected strategic leader who is known as a consensus builder and brings over 25 years of management and financial experience to his clients. Williams is focused on organizational development and management, specifically as operating head of the organization's Washington, D.C. office. Williams previously served Susan G. Komen for the Cure® as interim president, ensuring the alignment of strategic plans, organizational structure and financial planning to maximize success.

As founder of Mike Williams and Associates, he has a proven track record of achievement, providing organizational and financial leadership and innovative thinking to businesses and industries undergoing transition. A CPA by training, Williams also served in a senior finance role at a major acute care hospital in Southern California, overseeing internal and external financial reporting as well as the institution's efforts at patient-focused process improvement across all departments. He began his career at Arthur Andersen & Co. and then at Ernst & Young.

Williams served as interim Chief Financial Officer for Komen, and has held executive positions at several multi-million dollar organizations in a variety of industries, guiding them through periods of transition, including the National Association of Broadcasters, Motion Picture Association of America and Recording Industry Association of America.