Organizations/Resources for Possible Partnership Opportunities

This list is intended to include organizations/resources other than those providers that might appear in the Health Systems Analysis (HSA) template.

State Health Departments

http://www.apha.org/about/Public+Health+Links/LinksStateandLocalHealthDepartments.htm

The American Public Health Association has a list of state (and some local) health departments with web links.

Clinical Trials

http://www.cancer.gov/clinicaltrials/

The National Cancer Institute (NCI) provides several search options for anyone interested in learning about clinical trials, including information on clinical trials happening in their community.

Schools of Public Health

http://www.asph.org/

The National Association of Schools of Public Health website has links to accredited schools of Public Health.

Evidence Based Partners

http://cancercontrolplanet.cancer.gov/

Cancer Control P.L.A.N.E.T. provides access to web-based resources that allow Affiliates to:

- Identify program and research partners
- Research reviews of different interventions
- Find evidence based programs and products
- Find guidelines for planning and evaluation
Area Health Education Centers (AHEC)

http://www.nationalahec.org/AHECDirectory.taf

The mission of AHEC is to enhance access to quality health care, particularly primary and preventive care, by improving the supply and distribution of healthcare professionals through community/academic educational partnerships. On this website, you will need to scroll down for a listing of AHEC centers/staff by state.

Rural Policy Research Institute

http://www.rupri.org/

The Rural Policy Research Institute (RUPRI) provides unbiased analysis and information on the challenges, needs, and opportunities facing rural America. RUPRI’s aim is to spur public dialogue and help policymakers understand the impact of public policies and programs on rural communities.

The Links, Inc.

http://www.linksinc.org/

The Links, Incorporated is one of the nation’s oldest and largest volunteer service organizations of extraordinary women who are committed to enriching, sustaining and ensuring the culture and economic survival of African Americans and other persons of African ancestry.