

Susan G. Komen® Breast Cancer CLINICAL TRIAL INFORMATION HELPLINE

Susan G. Komen is pleased to offer a clinical trial information helpline to support those in need of clinical trial information, support and resources to answer questions such as:

“What is a clinical trial?”

“How do I know if a clinical trial is right for me?”

“What should I expect during a clinical trial?”

“Am I eligible for a clinical trial?”

To speak to a Komen Clinical Trial Information Oncology
Social Worker or Specialist,
call toll-free:

1-877 GO KOMEN
(1-877-465-6636)

Email:
clinicaltrialinfo@komen.org

Helpline Hours:
M – F 9 p.m. – 10 p.m. EST
English/Spanish

To learn more, visit
komen.org

THE BREAST CANCER CLINICAL TRIAL INFORMATION ONCOLOGY SOCIAL WORKERS AND SPECIALISTS:

- Provide clinical trial information and education
- Help patients formulate questions to ask their doctor
- Coach, support and encourage patients when making clinical trial decisions
- Discuss medical information needed to complete a health assessment for trial matching
- Provide access to additional resources
- Provide psychosocial and emotional support

*“Your phone staff were very compassionate.
They were patient, understanding. It gave me a sense of hope, relief and support.
Thank you for being there for us.”*

The Susan G. Komen Clinical Trial Information
Helpline is made possible by a generous contribution from Odonate Therapeutics™.